SALARY FOR MAYORS

OF VIRGINIA TOWNS

Bill Offered by Mr. Houston Will

Work for the Good of the City Government.

MAYOR JONES WOULD RECEIVE PAY

If the Measure Becomes a Law It Will

Bring About Sweeping Changes And

It is Expected to Receive the Support That it Deserves in the Assembly.

Hon. Henry B. Houston, the member of the House from this county, yesterday offered a bill in the legislature which if it becomes a law, will mean that mayors of towns will hereafter receive salaries. The bill makes the maximum salary of the town mayor at $500. The present system simply makes the mayor a justice of the peace his salary is the emolument he collects in fees for the trial of cases.

The new bill will bring about sweeping changes in the pay of the mayors and it is expected that the measure will pass both branches of the legislature.

Should the bill become a law Mayor Jones would then be entitled to draw a salary.

On several occasions attempts have been made to give Mayor Jones a salary, but each time the attempt failed.
